

Sticky Knowledge

Europe is one of 7 continents on the world and is where we live.

Other countries such as Germany, Spain, France, Italy, Greece and part of Russia are also in Europe.

Paris is the capital of France. Madrid is the capital of Spain. Berlin is the capital of Germany. London is the capital of England. Rome is the capital of Italy.

Human features of England

Buckingham Palace - built in 1705 in London and is one of the Queen's homes. The first monarch to live there was Queen Victoria who moved in on 13th July 1837.

Worcester Cathedral - built between 1084 and 1504 on the banks of the River Severn. Has many different styles of architecture due to being built over a long time. The tower holds a ring of 12 of the most beautiful church bells ever made.

Wembley stadium - most famous football stadium in England. Built in London between 2003-2007 and holds 90,000 seats.

Human Features of Spain

Sagrada Familia - roman Catholic church in Barcelona designed by an architect called Antoni Gaudi. They began building it in 1852 and he worked on it until he died in 1926. It is still not finished yet and they expect it to be finished in 2026- exactly 100 years after Gaudi died.

Santiago Bernabéu Stadium - football stadium in Madrid. Built between 1945-1947 and holds 81,000 seats.

Physical Features of England

River Severn - longest river in England starting in UK. Begins at the source in Wales, flows through Worcester down to the Bristol Channel and out into the Atlantic Ocean.

Malvern Hills - the hills span over Worcestershire, Herefordshire and Gloucestershire. The highest point is the Worcestershire Beacon which is 425m and the hills are famous for producing spring water.

Europe

Geography

Physical Features of Spain

The Tagus river - beginning in Mid-eastern Spain it flows through Spain, into Portugal and out into the Atlantic Ocean. It is the longest river in Spain at 1007km long.

Sierra Nevada - mountain range in Southern Spain spanning 26 miles. The highest point is Mulhacén Peak which is 3481m high.

Canada

Near North America. Capital City is Toronto.

CN tower- built in 1976 in Toronto for looking out over the city. It is now a tourist attraction.

Rocky Mountains - more than 3000 mile long mountain range spreading across Canada and America. Mount Elbert is the highest peak standing at 4399 metres high.

Key Vocabulary

Country	A land controlled by one government.
Hemisphere	Earth is divided into North and South Hemisphere.
Continent	A large solid area of land. The 7 continents are: Asia, Africa, Antarctica, Australasia, Europe, North America and South America.
Capital city	The city where the country's government operate from.
Landmark	A place of interest.
Population	Number of people who live there.
Equator	Imaginary line around the middle of the Earth.
Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn	Lines of latitude 23° above and below the equator.